NEWBIRTH CREATIVE ANNOUNCES LAUNCH OF NEW WEBSITE

NewBirth Creative announced today the launch of their new website and blog, located at <http://newbirthcreative.com>

NewBirth Creative announced today the launch of their new website and blog, located at <http://newbirthcreative.com>. Creative Director for the creative design agency, Micah Touchet, said this marks the fifth redesign in about seven years. Several issues were tackled, including usability, available resources and SEO. Also improved was the look and feel of the site.

“We coded this site fresh from the ground up,” said Touchet. “We also have tweaked the brand to give it an even ‘fresher’ feel. This is reflected, too, in our letterhead, business cards and other media.”

Other changes and improvements were a live news feed, updated portfolio and a comprehensive list of services.

“We hope this site will become an even greater asset to our clients, and to others that may need creative design services,” stated Touchet. “We are asking everyone to take some time, look over the site and then let us know what they think.”

We inexorably believe that fresh ideas are inherently better than the accepted industry standard of same oldness, and we have quickly garnered respect among our clientele of small and large companies, including several national and international accounts, for our clear and inspired thinking.
